GLOBE INN,

YORK STREET, NEAR THE DIAMOND,

GETTYSBURG, PENN'A.

THE undersigned would most respectfully inform his numerous friends and the public generally, that he has purchased that long established and well known Hotel, the "Globe Inn," in York street, Gettysburg, and will spare no effort to conduct it in a manner that will not detract from its former high reputation. His table will be the best the market can afford—his chambers spacious and comfortable—and he has laid in for his bar a full stock of wines and liquors. There is large stabling attached to the Hotel, which will be attended by attentive ostlers. It will be his constant endeavor to render the fullest satisfaction to his guests, making his house as near a home to them as possible. He asks a share of the public's patronage, determined as he is to deserve a large portion of it. Remember, the "Globe Inn" is in York street, but near the Diamond, or Public Square.

Will prevent and cure CHICKEN CHOLERA, and other Diseases common to Poultry, and will promote an increase of Fat.

Full Directions accompany each Package.

PRICE 25 CENTS.

THE annexed are a few of the certificates we have received in proof of the great value and efficacy of the Poulterers' Friend:

CARROLLTON, Baltimore co., Md., December 16th, 1867.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:

Gentlemen:—I have used your "Poulterers' Friend" upon a brood of young chickens that had the gapes, and am happy to say that by the use of a few doses they were entirely cured. It will certainly cure the gapes when used according to directions.

Yours, &c., GEO. HARMAN.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 7th, 1868.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:

Gentlemen:—I have sold all the "Poulterers' Friend" I received from you last August. The poultry in the surrounding country was dying very fast with "Cholera." I recommended your "Poulterers' Friend," and as far as I could learn, it has proven a cure for the disease.

Respectfully, W. R. GOODMAN.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 24, 1868.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:

Gentlemen:—My chickens were dying very fast with what the neighbors called "Chicken Cholera." I was induced to try your "Poulterers' Friend," and it worked like a charm. I gave it as directed, and it cured those that were then sick, and I have not seen any symptoms of the disease since. Yours, &c.,

E. MENGKEN, Cross & Warner Sts.

JEFFERSON, Frederick co., Md., July 23, 1867.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co., Baltimore:

Gentlemen. The wonderful cures which have been made by your "Poulterers' Friend" can not fail to interest all who raise Poultry. A gentleman of this village has been experimenting on chickens with the gapes. He tried your "Poulterers' Friend," according to the directions, and it had the desired effect in destroying the worm, effectually relieving the chicken at once. Since then I have had many calls for it, and it has been used extensively with the same result. It is of incalculable value to all who raise Poultry.

Respectfully, A. SPENCER.

DRESS Coats, Pants and Vests, at CUNNINGHAM'S.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND Hoofland's German Tonic.

THE GREAT REMEDIES

FOR ALL DISEASES OF

THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixtures of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

Hoofland's German Tonic.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medical virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most pleasant.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

CONSTIPATION, FLATULENCE, INWARD PILES, FULNESS OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, NAUSEA, HEART-BURN, DISGUST FOR FOOD, FULNESS OR WEIGHT IN THE STOMACH, SOUR ERUCTATIONS, SINKINGS OR FLUTTERING AT THE PIT OF THE STOMACH, SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, HURRIED OR DIFFICULT BREATHING, FLUTTERING AT THE HEART, CHOKING OR SUFFOCATING SENSATIONS WHEN IN A LYING POSTURE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DOTS OR WEBS BEFORE THE SIGHT, DULL PAIN IN THE HEAD, DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, YELLOWNESS OF THE SKIN AND EYES, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK, CHEST, LIMBS, ETC., SUDDEN FLASHES OF HEAT, BURNING IN THE FLESH, CONSTANT IMAGININGS OF EVIL, AND GREAT DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would remind those who

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, Induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposures, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find the use of the BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into the veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietors, but space will allow of the publication of but few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD."

Hon. James Thompson,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine for the class of diseases it is recommended for. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I am induced, in opposition to my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD,

Eighth, below Coates St.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philada.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable remedy, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.

NOTHING LOST.

Nothing is lost; the drop of dew
That trembles on the leaf or flower
Is but exhaled, to fall anew
In summer's thunder shower;
Perchance to shine within the bow
That fronts the sun at fall of day—
Perchance to sparkle in the flow
Of fountains far away.

So with our deeds, good or ill,
They have a power scarce understood;
Then let us use our better will
To make them rife with good;
Like circles on a lake they go,
Ring within ring, and never stay.
Oh, that our deeds were fashioned so
That they might bless alway!

MEANNESS.

The following fact is a good illustration of that mean economy which in plain Saxon is called "stinginess:"

A well-known artist went, one summer, into a country village for rest from work. He found the fare at the hotel so meagre and bad that he determined to see if he could not be better served in a private family. Two maiden sisters, overjoyed at the generous terms he offered, opened their doors to receive him and his family. Simple as their tastes were, however, the Eatons were again disappointed. They could not live upon the scanty food doled out to them by the parsimonious sisters, and at length Mr. Eaton, in his stand way, asked for his bill, as he was about to leave. The bill was handed to him with an addition of one cent, two cent and ninepenny charges, for items upon which no one but a small soul would have dreamed of fixing a money value.

Mr. Eaton put it in his pocket as a unique specimen of meanness, to enjoy a laugh over by and by, and laid upon the table the amount in bills.

"Thank you," said Miss Pattie, grasping the bills with an eager clutch; "you have paid me four cents too much, but I suppose you don't mind that."

"Yes, I do," answered Mr. Eaton, with a mock serious face, better than he could have painted, "and I'll thank you for the change."

"Mussy!" exclaimed Pattie.

"My sakes!" echoed Nancy. "Such a little thing, and we haint got four cents in the house."

"I will wait for it," replied Mr. Eaton, sitting down as if prepared to stay a year.

"Mussy to me! How queer you be! We have got dinner to get, and can't spend our time runnin' round to borrow four cents."

"Why-ee," answered Nancy, "who'd hev thought he was so close, when he's paid us dollars jest as prompt! Wal, I never."

Then they vanished into the buttery, and spent a long time discussing this singular exhibition of closeness.

You may guess the effort it cost the artist to play his part with proper seriousness, when Miss Pattie returned and placed before him a pie and some cheese.

"There," she said, "if you must have them four cents, you can set down and eat four cents' wuth of pie'n cheese."

Now this was the very first time Mr. Eaton had ever had more than the eighth fraction of a pie offered him under Miss Pattie's roof. The opportunity was too rich to be slighted. Piece by piece that pie vanished from before the eyes of the watchful sisters.

"Dreary-a-dreary me," sighed Pattie to Nancy, in a loud whisper; "we'd better have paid him. He's eat a ninepence worth al ready!"

The satisfied creditor laid down his fork and bade them a civil good-day, averring, when he told the story, that although he had actually paid them a hundred dollars more than their just due, that little incident was worth the full amount.

POLITENESS IN DUNNING.—An old gentleman had owed a firm for a year; at last, as everybody's patience and temper were exhausted, a clerk named Frank undertook to get the money.

Frank called upon the gentleman, and met with a polite reception and the usual answer, with the addition:

"You need not trouble yourself, young man, about the matter; I will make it all right."

"Oh, no," replied Frank, "I could not think for a moment of compelling you to call at the store for a few dollars. It will not be the slightest inconvenience for me to step in, as I pass your place of business six times a day, to and from my meals, and I can call every time I go by."

"Here," said the old fellow to his book-keeper, alarmed at the prospect of being dunned six times a day for the next six months, "pay this impertinent rascal. He can beat me in politeness, and if he wants a situation I'll give him two thousand dollars a year."

EXTREME POLITENESS.—Etiquette requires in Chinese conversation that each should compliment the other and everybody belonging to him, in the most laudatory style, and depreciate himself, with all pertaining to him, to the lowest possible point. The following is no exaggeration, though not the precise words:

"What is your honorable name?"

"My insignificant appellation is Chang."

"Where is your magnificent palace?"

"My contemptible hut is at Luchan."

"How many are your illustrious children?"

"My vile, worthless brats are five."

"How is the health of your distinguished spouse?"

"My mean, good-for nothing old woman is well."

PERSEVERANCE.—Henry Clay thus spoke: Constant, persevering application will accomplish anything. To this quality, if I may be allowed to speak of myself, do I owe the little success which I have attained. Left in early life to work my own way alone, without friends or pecuniary resources, and with no other than a common education, I saw that the pathway before me was steep and rugged, and the height upon which I had ventured to fix the eye of my ambition could be reached only by toil most severe and a purpose the most indomitable. But shrinking from no labor, disheartened by no obstacles, I struggled on. No opportunity, which the most watchful vigilance could secure, to exercise my power, was permitted to pass by unimproved.

LESSON IN GRAMMAR.—Lo! the poor Indian; lower, the poor negro; lowest, the poor white man, who is taxed to purchase bread and blankets for both of the others.

ONIONS are six dollars a bushel in Lowell, Mass.

A BAD REASON.

A wedding party recently went before the mayor of Fontainbleau, who refused to perform the marriage ceremony because the bridegroom was drunk. In spite of the entreaties of the bride and the relations on both sides, the civil functionary obdurately insisted on a postponement. Four days later the same couple, attended as before, presented themselves again; but the would-be husband was in no more decent condition than on the former occasion. Thereupon the mayor waxed exceeding wroth, and addressing the bride said, "And you, too, mademoiselle, are you not ashamed to come here to ask me to unite you to a man in this disgraceful state?" "May it please your worship," said the blushing young lady, "I would much rather bring my man before he had his glass; but the misfortune is that when he is sober he won't come." What the mayor said and did after this is not told.

A LANDLORD RETALIATED UPON.—A gentleman well known to our merchants as a New York drummer, named Frank W——, stopped for supper at the little town of Salem, Ohio, on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad, a few months ago. He was hungry, and fifteen minutes was the time allowed for refreshment. At least seven of the fifteen minutes had elapsed before Frank could catch the eye of the waiter, when he was furnished with a cup of coffee and a plate of beans. The beans were but half devoured, when the landlord came along and demanded a dollar. Frank protested, but the landlord was obstinate, and "all aboard!" being heard, our drummer friend was compelled to shell out. Shortly afterward, being in Cincinnati, he inquired at the telegraph office if he could send a dollar dispatch to Salem, to be paid at its destination. The clerk told him he could, when the following was sent, C. O. D.:

CINCINNATI, Dec. 10, 1867.

To E. Stone, Salem, Ohio:

I still think the price of your beans too high. FRANK W——.

History does not record what Stone did or said on receipt of this dispatch, for which he had paid his dollar. But his feelings may be imagined.

"WHO MOVED DIS WELL?"—Some years since a prominent business man of Northampton, who began to "sow his wild oats" when a boy, and hasn't got through yet, attended a colored ball in that town. After each "break down" he noticed that a well near the house, which, by the way, was not a deep one, was resorted to by the men to quench their thirst. Unobserved, while the dance was going on, he slipped out of the house and moved the curb a few feet beyond the well, and then waited the result. Presently out came one of the dancers, and plump to the bottom of

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

AUDITOR GENERAL,

Hon. CHARLES E. BOYLE, of Fayette county.

SURVEYOR GENERAL,

Gen. WELLINGTON H. ENT, of Columbia co.

Conservative Soldiers' and Sailors' National Convention.

The Executive Committee appointed by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, held at Cleveland in 1866, have called a National Convention of the Conservative Soldiers and Sailors of the United States, to meet at the city of New York, the 4th of July next, to take action on the nomination of Conservative candidates for President and Vice President. As it is desirable that Pennsylvania should be fully represented in said Convention, we request our late comrades in arms to take the necessary action to have delegates elected or appointed from every Congressional district in the State. As the time is rapidly approaching when the Convention will meet, there should be no delay in the matter

General EDWARD L. DANA,
Major General WELLINGTON H. ENT,
General JACOB B. SWEITZER,
Major General JOSEPH F. KNIPE,
General W. W. H. DAVIS,
Colonel WILLIAM McCANDLESS,
Colonel JOHN P. LINTON,
Colonel JOHN S. McCALMONT,
Colonel LEVI MAISH.

THE RADICAL NOMINEES.

The Republican National Convention at Chicago, last week, nominated Ulysses Grant for President, and Schuyler Colfax for Vice President—both from one section, from adjoining States indeed, the former from Illinois and the latter from Indiana. Grant has been manœuvring for this nomination for some time, as witness his disreputable treatment of the President in the Stanton affair, with other equally significant acts, all to please the Radicals; whilst Colfax, a professional office-hunter, and always after the spoils, has been no less active. Both Radicals, and on a Radical platform, they go into the canvass with the load of debt and infamy created by the Radical party, upon their shoulders; and thus borne down, all the boasting and bellowing in the power of their army of hungry followers will not save them from the fate which their corrupt and ruinous party has long ago earned for itself—overwhelming defeat and disaster.

A STRIKING PARALLEL.

When Thaddeus Stevens, in 1838, sought to overturn the government of Pennsylvania by inaugurating a "Buckshot War," a few members of his own party in the Legislature refused to "throw conscience to the devil" and follow his lead—and thus he failed to secure the votes necessary to carry out his nefarious intent.

So with impeachment. For a year past he has been pushing his purpose to depose the President of the United States, and though failing again and again to get the House to second him, he at last, in an hour of excitement and passion, accomplished his programme so far. The case went to the Senate, with all the show and parade he and his followers could muster. The trial proceeded—the testimony grew weak and weaker—and Stevens and his clansmen bellowed the louder. At last a vote was reached, and, as at Harrisburg in 1838, Stevens was again foiled by the votes of a few of his party friends!

Is not this a striking parallel, and does it not look as though there was a special providence in it?

THE New York Herald considers the final vote on impeachment as a defeat of the extremists in the Republican party. The World says it has saved us from entering on the road to Mexican anarchy. The Times (Republican) is gratified that the trial has closed, and hopes Congress will now go to work.

Let it do something for the white people of the country. The negroes have been enjoying the roast long enough. Tax-payers want a "change," and will have it at the next election, if not before.

THE Chicago Convention did not read the seven Republican Senators who voted for "traitor Andy's" acquittal out of the party, after all the denunciation and abuse hurled at them. Why? The party could not afford it. To such a desperate strait has once powerful Radicalism come. It can no longer assert its power and dignity by the expulsion of even the small number of seven "traitors" from its ranks. "Oh, what a fall!"

PARTY FEALITY.—True to party interests, the most of the Republican press is acquiescing in the non-condemnation of the anti-Impeachment Senators of that party at Chicago. The New York Sun says:

"This is the simple common sense of the matter, and no Republican politician, except the fools, has ever thought of turning these Senators out of that party. We can tell the Republicans, too, that they have no votes to throw away, and that they had better enlarge their party rather than diminish it, if they wish to carry the next election."

The Sun is rather hard, in the above, on the politicians who rule the Republican roast here. To be called "fools," when they think they know more than the rest of mankind, can hardly be pleasant to their "feelinks."

THE Radicals throughout the country had prepared large quantities of powder to fire salutes when the news came of the removal of President Johnson. Impeachment having failed, they are now economically using up their ammunition in making a noise over the nomination of Grant and Colfax, but the people are not responding to the voice of the guns. The populace are not prepared to exhibit any signs of rejoicing over nominations made by so corrupt a party.

EQUALITY.—Thirty-eight negroes, sat in the Chicago Radical Convention as the equals of John W. Forney, Alexander K. McClure, and "sich." "There is no accounting for tastes," but we do not believe that the white people of the North will show a hankering for such company at the ballot box in November next.

WENDELL PHILLIPS says the Radicals have been killed by the failure of impeachment. He also pronounces the Chicago platform weak, and Grant and Colfax ditto.

COL. McCLURE reminded the Chicago Convention "that as Pennsylvania casts her vote next November, so will be the decision of the canvass." The Democrats can carry Pennsylvania, and they will—and so will "be the decision of the canvass."

THE impeachers, a month ago, declared that if President Johnson was not convicted, Grant could not be elected. The President has been acquitted—now "how about it?"

OLD THAD STEVENS, one of the Impeachers, boldly defied, aye dared any Republican Senator to vote for the acquittal of Andrew Johnson. Senators Fessenden, Grimes and others have taken him at his word, and defied his threats.

ANOTHER VOTE ON IMPEACHMENT.

The President Acquitted by the Court Adjourns sine die.

The Right Triumphant—Radicalism Receives Another Check!

The "high oil" court of impeachment again met on Tuesday. The leading impeachers, in a caucus the previous evening, had determined that the vote on the remaining ten articles should be again postponed, but the "nice laid plan" was defeated when it came up in the Senate, by a tie vote. Thus were the impeachers a second time foiled.

They then had the rules changed so as to allow them to commence with the second article, fearing that Sherman would vote against them on the first. The vote was taken, and resulted as on the eleventh article—35 yeas to 19 nays, not two-thirds. Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Henderson, Ross, Trumbull and Van Winkle, Republicans, again voted with the Democrats for the President's acquittal. Defeat No 3 for the impeachers.

A vote on the third article was had, with precisely the same result. Thus were the impeachers for the fourth time disappointed.

Mr. Williams then moved that the Court adjourn sine die, and the impeachers, realizing that there was no further hope for them, voted for and carried the resolution. The following was the vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Anthony, Cameron, Cattell, Chandler, Cole, Conkling, Conness, Corbett, Cragin, Drake, Edmunds, Ferry, Frelinghuysen, Harlan, Howard, Howe, Morgan, Morrill, of Maine, Morrill, of Vermont, Morton, Nye, Patterson, of New Hampshire, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Tipton, Van Winkle, Wade, Willey, Williams and Wilson—35.

Nays—Messrs. Bayard, Buckalew, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Fowler, Hendricken, Hendricks, Johnson, McCreery, Norton, Patterson, of Tennessee, Ross, Saulsbury, Trumbull and Vickers—19

The Chief Justice then ordered a judgment of acquittal to be entered, and the impeachment court adjourned, never to meet again.

Thus has ended one of the foulest attempts ever made to stain our national history. It will stand out in all future ages as a warning to political demagogues, and as a beacon of hope to the friends of the Constitution, no matter by whom or how it may be assailed.

The PEOPLE are glad—glad that the trial has ended, and ended thus. In this attempted persecution of Andrew Johnson, the Constitution suffered a severe strain, but it nobly withstood the attack, and is true "itself again." All honor to the sternly honest men who weathered the storm of Radical hate and passion, and steered the ship of State to a harbor of safety once more.

STANTON RETIRES.

Impeachment having failed, Stanton resigned the War office, on Wednesday. His dying official act—and may the country never look upon his like again!

This resignation is a fitting close to the grand drama of impeachment, and from this time forth let Stanton, Stevens, Butler, Boutwell & Co. be treated only with scorn and detestation by all patriotic men in the land.

IT was considered certain at Washington on Wednesday that Gen. Schofield would be confirmed as Secretary of War yesterday. Only Sumner and about a dozen other Radicals were opposed to it, says a Washington letter to the Sun.

THE Radicals, at Chicago, adopted a sort of India rubber platform, afraid as they were to come out boldly for what they really wanted—negro suffrage throughout the whole country. Having had the thing tried in several of the Northern States, and finding white blood revolting at it, they now try to straddle both horses by insisting on enforced negro suffrage and domination at the South, but North the people are magnanimously allowed to do as they please about it. This is not only disgraceful double-dealing, but downright dishonesty.

The platform also promises economy and a reduction of taxes. On this point we cannot do better than introduce what the New York Times, (Conservative Republican,) says—as follows:

"In certain other respects the platform sounds ironically. Declarations in favor of a rapid reduction of taxation and the strictest economy in the administration of the Government are unassailable as abstract propositions. Every man not fed at the public expense will hold up both hands for them. But a Republican Convention in 1868 ought to have been able to present something more effective than promises. The party has been in power long enough to have gathered a rich store of performances. It should have been able to go before the country with a record of services rendered in regard both to retrenchment and taxation. The public purse has been for years altogether in its hands. It has had exclusive management of the appropriations and exclusive power over forms and amounts of taxation. How happens it, then, that in a platform intended to set forth its claims to continued confidence it has nothing better to offer than resolves in favor of reforms which it has obstinately and culpably neglected? Why is it that no serious attempt has been made to enforce even moderate economy, and that, in consequence, the abolition of taxes must be followed by their reimposition, or by a large addition to the debt? These are weak spots in the party's record. They are a condemnation of its recent Congressional career, and a sorry exemplification of its fidelity and capacity in fiscal and financial affairs."

THE SERENADE TO THE RADICAL NOMINEES.—The Washington Intelligencer says: So heavy, dull, and flat did the nominations at Chicago fall upon this community that it was impossible to get up but a handful of persons—one or two hundred—to serenade the nominees, and call out the speeches which were to electrify the country.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: The very flattest thing of the season, was the reception of the news of the nomination of Grant and Colfax by the Radicals of this city. The spectacle was about as animated as a funeral on a rainy day. We saw two flags, one on Fifth, and the other on Race street, flung to the breeze, for a short time, late in the afternoon. And so ended the great enthusiastic fizzle, so complete that it was almost oppressive to the quiet citizen.

THE apparent unanimity of the nomination of General Grant is of no political significance. Clay was nominated by acclamation and with the same unanimity by the Whig Convention in 1844, while the Democratic Conventoin of the same year came together with as much doubt as to a candidate as may mark the opening proceedings of the Convention this year. Yet when Polk was nominated the party was thoroughly and enthusiastically in accord, and the candidate was triumphantly elected. For a later instance, it was hardly possibly for any convention to assemble with more "must" candidates before it than the Democratic Convention of 1852. But when Pierce was nominated against Scott, the conqueror of Mexico, there was "unanimity" enough to enable him to carry every State in the Union, excepting four.—N. Y. World.

THE Rebel General Hood, who was prominent in the battle of Gettysburg, was married in New Orleans, a few days ago, to Miss Anna Hennan. Generals Buckner, Bragg, Wheeler, Maury and Scott were among those present.

RADICAL RASCALITIES EXPOSED BY A RADICAL.

The State Guard, the Radical Organ at Harrisburg, in an article on the Chicago Convention has this to say of some of the men who represented Pennsylvania in this mixed body of "black spirits and white:"

"The Keystone State was disgraced and humiliated in that Convention by men who, neither at home or abroad, respect the wishes and the will of the masses of the Republican party of Pennsylvania. These men made their money from the advantage they took of the patronage of our party, and to day every embarrassment we suffer in the advocacy of our principles springs from the charges of corruption our opponents are able to fling to our teeth, BY REASON OF THE DISHONESTY OF THESE MEN who defied the will and misrepresented the wishes of the people of Pennsylvania at Chicago. These demagogues are rich, and therefore claim they can do as they please. They are the authors of all our political disgrace, and therefore act with desperate unconcern whenever the reputation of the Republican party is at stake. But the old wheel horse must struggle on in heavy harness, and WHILE DEMAGOGUES RIOT IN THE WEALTH THEY HAVE ALREADY FILCHED FROM OUR COUNTRY'S NECESSITIES, OR PLAN NEW SCHEMES OF PLUNDER, the Republican masses of the Keystone State are expected to be true to principle, are looked to to win victories out of which these clique leaders may secure the means to add new acres to their already gigantic land possessions, and more dollars to their our swollen bank accounts. The Republicans of Pennsylvania will not always submit to wrongs and dishonor. OUR LOAD OF DISGRACE IS MORE THAN WE CAN BEAR, and when reaction does come, WOE BE TO THE PLUNDERERS who now assume the tyrannical management of our political organization. In the meantime, go tang, wheel horse, and do your duty!"

After such clear admissions in regard to the past rascalities of the Radical leadership of Pennsylvania, can the people, very pertinently asks the Patriot & Union, be made to confide in them or their candidates, or put faith in the platform of principles which they have erected? We think not. Who so silly as to believe that persons branded as "plunderers" in their own party can or will practice honesty or economy in future, if brought into office and power by the election of the candidates whom they have put in nomination? Who so credulous as to suppose that the "demagogues" who nominated Grant and Colfax, and who are now rioting in the wealth they "filched from our country's necessities," would stop their "schemes of plunder" should their candidates prove successful at the November election? They would not—they could not—stop their rascalities. Grant and Colfax are in the hands of these "plunderers"—bound, as Lincoln was, to throw open the doors of the public offices and Treasury to them. Let the people, therefore, before casting their votes in November, carefully consider the above testimony against those who nominated the Radical ticket and erected its platform—testimony which comes direct from an organ whose editor has been for years in confidential communication with those who are charged with plundering the Government.

AN EXPENSIVE LAW.

If the Radicals are not soon put out of power, there will not be money enough in the country to pay the expenses of our State and National Governments. They are constantly inventing new ways to spend the people's money. The Registry Law passed at the last session of our Legislature turns out to be an expensive thing. The City Commissioners of Philadelphia have made application to the Councils for an extra appropriation of eighty-one thousand dollars to carry out the law in that city. At this rate it will take half a million dollars to execute it throughout the State! Thus while trade in all its branches is languishing and business men have hard work to keep their heads above water, our Radical Congress spends millions on the Freedmen's Bureau and our Radical State Legislature spends half a million to put in execution an unnecessary and vexatious Registry Law. Is it not time to have a change?—Valley Spirit.

We are glad to learn, as our Democratic readers will be, that steps have been taken, in Philadelphia, to test the constitutionality of this expensive and unnecessary law.

DISSATISFACTION AMONG RADICALS.—Great indignation existed in Philadelphia on Thursday with the Radicals in reference to the overslaughing of the various candidates for the Vice-Presidency, this side of the Alleghenies. A prominent Radical in the presence of the writer predicted that Pennsylvania would give thirty thousand majority for Hancock if he was nominated at the New York Convention on July 4, and the city of Philadelphia would give five thousand majority for any one nominated by the Democrats.—Washington Express.

THE Committee of the Democratic Soldiers and Sailors, which met at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, last week, included "Generals J. B. Steadman, Gordon Granger, F. P. Blair, Jr., H. W. Slocum, Kilby Smith, G. P. Este, Alexander McDowell McCook, Henry E. Davies, Jr., Col. Frank G. Noyes, and many others of equal weight." They are all unanimous for Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock, "the Game Cock of the Army," as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, with Senator Hendricks, of Indiana, for Vice-President.—York Gazette.

ILLINOIS is getting on her feet again At Pekin the Democrats have carried every ward and made a gain of over 300. Bloomington, heretofore the nursery of Radicalism, elected a Democratic Mayor by a majority of 235. Quincy elected a Democratic Mayor by a majority of about 1000—a gain of more than 300. And to cap the climax, Chicago elected the Democratic ticket by a handsome majority. It would appear that the "day of jubilee" has come in Illinois.

THE rascally acts of the Radical Jacobins in Congress are becoming more repugnant and repulsive every day of their session. They have recently passed a bill to disfranchise soldiers and enfranchise negroes in the District of Columbia, the more effectually to perpetuate their rotten rule over the white people of the District, because they fail to appreciate the misrule of the fanatics.

COLFAX says: "We put into the slave's right hand the ballot to protect his manhood and his rights." No you don't. You do it only so that he may vote you into office. Down South you have disfranchised or beaten nearly to death every colored man who dared to exercise a choice by voting the Democratic ticket. —Patriot & Union.

A HARRISBURG Radical paper says: "The reduction of taxation has always been Republican doctrine." That is true. No other than the Radical party every reduced taxation to so low a system. Everybody who buys a box of matches with a cent stamp on it knows this.

A REWARD of $25,000 is offered for the commission of Ben Wade as President of the United States. Any person finding it, or giving information which will lead to the recovery of the same, will be paid the above reward by applying to Beast Butler.

THE METHODISTS ON IMPEACHMENT.

We have heretofore noted the fact of the Methodist E. General Conference, in session in Chicago, in rejecting resolutions, one day last week, favoring the conviction of the President, but on the following day a preamble and resolution were got through the body, appointing an hour of prayer that the Senate might come to a "rightful decision," &c. The resolution was in words unexceptionable, but the preamble unfortunately contained a suggestion that the religious privileges of the ministers and members in many parts of the South largely depend upon the "rightful decision" of the case, which sufficiently indicates what, in the opinion of the framers of the document, the "rightful decision" is, and the allusion to corrupt agencies being employed to influence Senators is so much in the prevailing Radical style at present that it is not difficult to see its drift. The ecclesiastical convention might as well leave politics to the political convention which met yesterday in the same place, and which would not be more out of place in discussing the relative merits of the different sects than in a religious assemblage in indicating its choice between politics. We presume the proceeding in its present shape was the work of those who failed to get through anything stronger the previous day, but, as it is, it might as well have been omitted.

The annexed remarks of Rev. Dr. Slicer, of Baltimore, on the occasion referred to, will be read with special interest:

I believe in the efficacy of prayer, and for over fifty years I have been taught by the Bible to believe that it is prudent and expedient for man to unite fasting with prayer; and when that resolution is taken up, sir, I shall move as a substitute that this General Conference set apart Friday next as a day of solemn fasting and prayer, in view of the troubles in which the country is now involved. And, sir, you can pray in your seats and closets, either kneeling or sitting, as you may feel inclined to do; but I trust, sir, we will not make ourselves partisans in the great troubles of the country by producing prayers, uttered in the ears of God or man, calculated to promote strife and contention, instead of pouring oil on the troubled waters.

Sir, Europe is breaking loose from the shackles that have bound church and state together, and if there is anything, sir, in which the American people are agreed, it is this, that there ought to be total severance of Church and State. [Great applause.]

We are not here, sir, as a Court of Impeachment; we are not here, sir, to regulate the affairs of this great nation; we are here as the ministers of the gospel of peace, and we have promised in our ordination vows, to promote peace and good will among all people; and I trust that this ecclesiastical body, while Europe is breaking loose from the shackles that bind church and State, will not set the example of allying ourselves with any political party on this continent. I trust, sir, we shall keep ourselves clear of that. Let the conference order a day of fasting and prayer, and let the order be strictly and solemnly complied with. And if we should spend half the day in our closets in solemn prayer to God for the country, we will be better for it ourselves than producing strife among the people. We hold different political opinions, and belong to different political classes, and it is not the province of this ecclesiastical body to give shape or direction to the public events in this great government, sir. We have charge of the religious interests of the country, and of the religious interests of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and it is not our duty to decide either for the President or against the President, or for the Senate or against the Senate. We are to promote peace and harmony, and pray to God for His blessing upon the whole American people. [Cries of "Amen."] May God send His blessing down on the whole American people! I trust we shall have fasting and prayer instead of an exhibition of politics in this conference. [Applause.]—Baltimore Sun.

ANOTHER OF FORNEY'S FALSEHOODS NAILED.—Forney, in his Press of Wednesday week, had an inflammatory editorial about a riot at York, Pennsylvania Here are some extracts from it:

York has disgraced the State by an unprovoked and cowardly attack on Major-General Logan, who, with his family, was passing through the town in a passenger train on Monday, en route to Chicago. At the depot, while waiting, the General left the cars, was recognized and followed, and when he had entered; just as the train was about to start several large stones were hurled through the windows of the car at him. Fortunately, they did no more harm than to break the car windows. One of them struck Governor Hahn, of Louisiana, on the breast. General Sickles and a large number of Republican Congressmen were on the train at the time. We trust this outrage will not be allowed to go unpunished. Democracy of the modern bastard shape simply means mob law and murder. Up North it asserts itself in riotous assaults on persons and processions. Down South it revels in Ku Klux Klans, tar and feathers, assassination, and blazing school houses. It is the duty of every good citizen to repress it.

The Press was rash in making a place as near as York the scene of this invention. The very next day came the contradiction, "Not a word of truth in the story." The officers of the road publish a formal denial of it.

Let this suggest to the readers of the Press that there is just as little truth in the Ku Klux Klan stories which the Press assigns, at will, to remote places at the South.

THE Democratic National Convention, to nominate candidates for President and Vice President, will meet at New York on the 4th of July next. We believe that prudent counsels will prevail, and that success will be made a leading point in the selection. Prominent candidates are already expressing their disposition to yield to the strongest man. This is right. With such a spirit animating all, a good ticket will be the result, and success assured.

THE Chicago Convention, by ignoring Curtin and Fenton, admitted that the Radical party has no hope of carrying Pennsylvania and New York. Presidential candidates who heretofore failed to carry these two powerful States, failed to reach the White House. And the rule will hold good in 1868.

IT is reported that Secretary Seward and Postmaster General Randall desire to retire from the Cabinet, but not from any disagreement with President Johnson.

POOR OLD WADE was shamefully treated by his Radical friends. After they had got him to disgrace himself by voting to convict the President, they said to him through their Convention, as Cromwell said to the Long Parliament when he dispersed it with his troopers, "Get you gone—the Lord has done with you!"—Spirit.

"WHEN the brains are out the man will die," exclaimed they of old. The brains of Radicalism went out with Fessenden, Grimes, Trumbull and Chase, yet we are gravely assured by its organs that the party liveth, and will "fight to the bitter end."

IT is useless to think or talk about stopping the tide of wickedness and crime that is sweeping over this country, so long as the clergy, so-called, pay more attention to politics and the gratification of their selfish tastes and carnal pleasures than to the saving of souls.

THE Albany Argus says that impeachment will probably cost over five hundred thousand dollars! Another smug sum to pay for Radical folly.

THE Congressional query, "Are pantaloons stationery?" is lost in the general Radical acknowledgment that impeachment is an expensive suit.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

Memorial Discourse.—Rev. Dr. Morris has been appointed to deliver a Memorial Discourse on the death of Rev. Dr. Baugher, late President of Pennsylvania College. It will be delivered during the next commencement week, in August.

Services.—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Presbyterian church at Hunterstown, on the first Sabbath of June. Preparatory services on Saturday, the 6th, at 10 o'clock.

There will be services in the Marsh Creek Presbyterian church on the first Sabbath of June, at 10 o'clock, A. M., by Rev. Mr. Craig.

Paralysis.—John L. Burns, of this place, whilst on a visit to Harrisburg, last week, was suddenly attacked with paralysis. Prompt medical aid was had, and his condition has much improved. He returned home on Tuesday.

Improvements.—Mr. Samuel Lauver is putting up a two-story weatherboarded house, and Mr. Conrad Linn a large bank barn on his farm, near Beechersville. Mr. Solomon Hartman is putting up a large bank barn on his farm, near Arendtsville.

Opening.—Mr. John Gruel formally opened his new Ice Cream Saloon on Thursday evening last. The members of Good Samaritan Lodge A. Y. M., were present by special invitation, and had a pleasant time, the refreshments all being first class.

Soldiers' Convention.—We direct attention to the call for a Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, to be found in another part of this paper. The Convention will meet in New York on the 4th of July, and the Democratic and Conservative Soldiers of this congressional district should take immediate steps to be fully represented therein. It promises to be an imposing gathering.

Natural Curiosity.—We have just been shown a "freak of nature" of more than ordinary interest, by Mr. Jacob Remmel, of this place. It is a young hive chicken, just hatched, having four legs, two occupying the usual position and two extra in the rear of them. The same hen hatched out another curiosity this season, in the shape of a double chicken, or two chickens grown together at the heads. She would do to travel with a show.

Arrest.—A straggler, giving his name as William Anders, was arrested by Constable Weikert, in this place, on Wednesday, on a charge of stealing a watch, some money and several articles of clothing from the residence of Henry Pensyl, in Butler township. When taken to prison Anders was searched, and a pistol and butcher knife found upon his person. The clothing and part of the money have been recovered.

Accident.—It is with regret we learn that John Muckley, (son of Peter Muckley, of Cumberland township,) aged about 14 years, on Wednesday week, sustained severe hurts whilst dressing an injured horse. The horse stumbling, fell upon him, breaking his leg and dislocating the ankle joint. Dr. O'Neal gave the case prompt attention, and the lad is doing well.

Railroad Accident.—Mr. John Green, of the "Globe Inn," Littlestown, met with a serious accident at the railroad crossing in Abbottstown street, Hanover, yesterday week. He had a lady with him in his buggy, and was about to cross the track, when a locomotive, the approach of which he did not hear, struck the buggy, throwing Mr. Green and the lady violently to the ground, and breaking the vehicle to pieces. Mr. Green was severely bruised, but sustained no breaking of bones. The lady, Miss Householder, of Abbottstown, was cut about the face, but otherwise escaped. The horse was only slightly hurt. It was truely a narrow escape from fatal consequences.

Visit to the Battle-field.—The Presbyterian General Assembly, in session at Harrisburg, visited this place yesterday. The party numbered three hundred and twenty-five, including a number of ladies. They arrived in a special train at 11 A. M., and, headed by Gov. Geary, marched to the Public Square, where he announced the programme—first to visit Seminary Ridge, (the ladies and older gentlemen taking the carriages provided for them)—then return to town and partake of a collation in Agricultural Hall; in the afternoon to visit the Cemetery and Culp's Hill, and at 6 P. M. take cars for Harrisburg—all of which was carried out. The presence of so large a body of visitors created quite a stir in the town.

Decoration of Soldiers' Graves.—The committee who have the arrangements in charge, have adopted the following

PROGRAMME:

At 5.30 P. M., the stores and places of business will be closed. A salute of 22 guns will be fired on Cemetery Hill—one for each block of graves in the Cemetery.

At 5 45 P. M., a Procession will form in the Diamond, in the following order, and march to the National Cemetery, under the direction of the Chief Marshal, Capt. J. F. McCreary:

1—Gettysburg Brass Band.
2—Drum Corps.
3—Military—Gettysburg and Franklin Zouaves.
4—Soldiers of the late war.
5—Citizens.

PROGRAMME AT CEMETERY.

1—Prayer
2—Introductory exercises.
3—Music and strewing of Flowers on the graves by the children of the Orphans' Home.
4—Address by Rev. J. A. Brown, D. D.
5—Benediction.

Ladies throughout the county are requested to furnish all the flowers possible. Those who cannot be personally present, are requested to send them to the Eagle Hotel, in Gettysburg, on Saturday, not later than 3 o'clock P. M.

Hanover Branch Railroad.—In the year ending March 31, 1868, the Company earned $54,696.25 on its own road; $10,775.40 for working Gettysburg road; $2,198.90 for working Littlestown road; and sold $2,624.59 of materials. Gross earnings $70,205.12. Its expenses have been $40,627.88; and its net earnings $29,667.24. It carried 25,115 through passengers, and 8,828 local. Its passenger receipts were $17,698.68; and its freight, $35,575.07. A new 26 ton locomotive was added during the year; and all the engines changed to burn bituminous coal. The Company expects to declare half-yearly dividends of five per cent., and the construction of the new road from Littlestown to Frederick will increase its business. The newly-developed ore interest on the line of the Road produced most of the $8,788.54 increase in freight receipts this year over last.

Painful.—One day last week, while Mr. Jesse Miller, of New Oxford, was engaged in removing a roof from a house, a portion of it slipped and fell to the ground, a small piece of wood striking Mr. Miller on his hand and almost penetrating through it. The wood being of a rotten nature, broke off, leaving a portion in the hand, which was removed with much difficulty.—Hanover Citizen.

LITTLESTOWN, May 25, 1868.

Mr. Editor.—As you are always anxious to have your local department well supplied with the latest and most refreshing, I will here state that a few days ago I called at the office of Dr. C. W. Benson, of this place, when he showed me a very large tumor, removed from the shoulder of Jno. George Wolf, of Germany township. The operation was skilfully performed by Dr. C. W. Benson, assisted by Dr. A. B. Mehring, and the patient is doing well. Dr. Benson justly merits a high reputation as a surgeon, having performed several of the capital operations of his profession.

Our Building Association is doing remarkably well for a start. Money now brings 20 per ct. premium, and plenty of buyers.

Our town is improving rapidly in the way of building, which will very considerably increase upon the completion to our place of the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad. Jacob Keller is erecting a very nice house on Gettysburg street, Mr. Bumgardner one on Baltimore street, Mr. Slothour one on Frederick street, Mr. Isaac Staub a very fine residence on Independent street, and as soon as the weather settles there will be quite a number more going up. So you will perceive your town is not the only spot where enterprise exists.

The Fair commencing here to-day promise to be a big thing. They have a very fine display of fancy and useful articles, together with plenty for the inner MAN.

PENN'A. COLLEGE, May 25, 1868.

Mr. EDITOR:—At a meeting of the Students of Penn'a College, in College Chapel, on the 22d inst., the following memorial was unanimously adopted, and sent to the family of the deceased, as the expression of their feelings in view of the death of their late President, Rev. H. L. Baugher, D. D., who ever held the highest place in their affections. The students were universally present, and manifested deep sorrow in the death of him whom they last looked upon as their truest friend and most honored and respected President, and resolved that a copy of the memorial should be sent to the Church and county papers:

Our Heavenly Father, who is too "wise to err," "too good to be unkind," having seen fit to remove, by death, Rev. H. L. Baugher, D. D., the official head of this Institution, and our true friend and faithful instructor, we mourn the dispensation of Providence which has deprived us of a beloved President and a learned and godly man, who sustained a relation to us almost paternal in its character.

In the midst of our mourning, we rejoice that his death was made peaceful and happy, by the presence of the Saviour, for whom he lived, and whose cross he so long upheld before the Church and the world.

The earnest and active christain life, the fearless advocacy of right and reform and the broad philanthropy, which distinguished our departed and revered instructor, challenge our admiration, and invite, and by God's blessing we trust will secure our imitation.

The deep and abiding interest he took in us, as pupils, both with respect to our temporal and eternal welfare, merits our warmest gratitude, and will cause us to cherish his memory throughout life.

We extend our cordial sympathies to his bereaved family and friends, in their sore trial, praying that they may receive the consolations of the Gospel, which the departed was so ready to administer to others, in like affliction.

As a testimony of our sorrow, we will wear the usual badge of morning ninety days.

Accidental Burning.—The following, from the McConnellsburg Democrat, of the 22d, has local interest, if it be really so that one of the party "resides near Gettysburg:"

"A couple of strangers, names unknown, travelling a foot and going on eastward, stopped in the evening of a rainy day of last week, at the old waste house half way down the western side of Scrub Ridge, three miles west of this, intending to remain there during the night. They kindled a fire and had gone to sleep. Some time in the night they were awakened by the discovery that the fire had somehow communicated itself to the clothes of one of the men, an Irishman, who resides somewhere near Gettysburg, but whose name we are unable to ascertain. The back of his shirt was completely ablaze, and though he violently endeavored to extinguish the flames, he was unable to do so until the shirt was completely torn from his body. His companion immediately started for help, and going to the house of Mr. Shaffer, nearly a mile this side, succeeded in procuring assistance. The sufferer was removed the next day, by the Overseers of Licking Creek township, who are now caring for him. The unfortunate stranger's life is considered to be very greatly in danger."

Hotel.—Persons visiting Littlestown will find the "Globe Inn," in Gettysburg street, owned and kept by Mr. John Green, an excellent house. Mr. G. is clever and accommodating, and omits nothing to make guests comfortable. Give him a call. 1t

Just Received—a large assortment of splendid Gold and Silver Watches, by Soper & McCartney, opposite the old Bank, in York street, Gettysburg. tf

Sewing Machines.—Our attention has been attracted within the last few weeks to the great number of Singer Sewing Machines received at this place. By the official returns of all sewing machine companies for the last year, the Singer Manufactory alone sold over forty-three thousand machines. Lewis Strayer, of York, Pa., General Agent for Southern Pennsylvania, has Mr. Peter Loucks as traveling agent in Adams county, who has a lot of these fine Singer Sewing Machines at the Hotel of Wm. E. Myers, in Gettysburg, Pa. We would advise those about purchasing Sewing Machines, to examine the merits of this machine, as we know no more profitable labor-saving machine than this. 1t

To Builders.—Col. C. H. Buehler has just received a very large assortment of LUMBER suitable for Building purposes, including Boards, Plank, Flooring, Siding, Laths, Pickets, Shingles, &c. Also Posts, hewed and sawed, with prime Fencing Boards, White Pine and Hemlock. Builders will do well to give him a call, as his stock is not only large, but his arrangements are such that he can sell at the very lowest cash rates.

Also constantly on hand, Blacksmith, Lime-burners' and Stove COAL, with an extensive assortment of COOKING STOVES, of the best make, Hollow-Ware, Tin-Ware, Japan-Ware, &c., which House-keepers will do well to examine. Wareroom on Carlisle street, opposite the depot. tf

Go and See—Capt. Norris' large stock of Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, and gentlemen's wear of every description, before purchasing elsewhere. He certainly has the finest stock ever offered in Adams county. His stock of Ready-made Clothing is not thrown together, but made by regular tailors and out in the latest style, and all goods are warranted to give satisfaction. Give him a call and be convinced. Boils.

Like the volcano, Boils give issue to the foul and fiery contents of the deep interior. To remove the cause of such suffering it is only necessary to vitalize the Blood by supplying it with its Life Element, Iron.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP,

(a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron) will do this effectually, and give strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM REV. RICHARD S. EDES, OF BOLTON, MASS.

"For years I was a sufferer from Boils, so that my life became wearisome through their frequent and persistent recurrence; finally a carbuncle formed in the small of my back. During its progress large pieces of decomposed flesh were every day or two cut away, and the prostration and general disturbance of the system were great. Before I had recovered from this attack two smaller carbuncles broke out higher up, and I was again threatened with a recurrence of the sufferings to which I had so long been subjected. It was at this time that I commenced taking the PERUVIAN SYRUP. I continued taking it until I had used five bottles; since then I have had nothing of the kind. For years I was one of the greatest sufferers. Other medicines gave me partial and temporary relief, but this remarkable remedy, with a kind and intuitive sense, went directly to the root of the evil, and did its work with a thoroughness worthy of its established character."

MORE BRIBERY.

A little matter has leaked out in Chicago that will give some idea of Radical tactics and morality. The Chicago correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial vouches for the truthfulness of the report that the Mississippi delegates have sold out to the New Yorkers for twenty-five thousand dollars, provided they can get into the Convention. He thus reports the transaction:

New York is in earnest for Fenton, and there is a well authenticated report that there have been in his behalf offers of from twenty to twenty-five thousand dollars for the vote of each of the seven delegations from the Southern States if admitted to the Convention. It is said that the Mississippi delegation offered itself for sale, with the excuse of being poor, and that New York closed the contract for the lot at twenty-five thousand dollars.

Two hundred thousand dollars to secure the nomination of the Vice-Presidency seems to be a large investment, but the "whisky rings" that control this Radical Congress would not feel that sum, in fact it would be only a drop in the bucket of their immense stealings, if they can accomplish their ends. And perhaps they are calculating that the second man on the ticket, if the Radicals should carry the Presidential election, may succeed to the Presidency at an early day. Money is power, and the Radicals are using it to perpetuate their party rule. They hope to triumph through their bribery, corruption and fraud in the future as they have in the past.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

"RECONSTRUCTION" IN VIRGINIA.

The Lynchburg (Va.) Republican, of the 12th inst., says: On Friday night last, Mr. Francis Henry Brockenbrough, son of the Hon John W. Brockenbrough, and brother of our highly esteemed townsman, Major J. B. Brockenbrough, was walking home, in Lexington, with his mother and another lady, when they were met by a negro man and some negro women, who refused to give them any way on the pavement. Young Brockenbrough, on account of the ladies under his charge, did not call the negro to account at the time; but after he had escorted his companions home, he returned and called on the negro, more to demand why the insult had been offered him and the ladies, than with any definite purpose of punishment. The black scoundrel, however, drew a pistol at once, shot Mr. Brockenbrough in the breast, inflicting a dangerous if not a fatal wound. The negro was arrested at 2 o'clock next morning and placed in jail. When the circumstances of the outrage became generally known, there was an intense excitement in the community, in which young Brockenbrough is much beloved, and a crowd started for the jail with the purpose of lynching the negro. General Lee, however, very properly interposed, and prevented the execution of this purpose. The excited crowd dispersed, and the law will be suffered to take its course.

A Speech Made by Dirty John Logan.

John A. Logan made the following little speech to the Illinois delegation:

GENTLEMEN: I want to know what is to be done with these damned traitors who have gone back on us in the Senate. I would not care so much about their votes if they had voted from honest conviction, but I happen to know they did not.

Now I tell you one thing, no party can exist and allow traitors in their ranks. What are you going to do with Trumbull, Fessenden, Ross, and that like, and so with those papers of yours in your city that published Grimes' speech, and Trumbull's speech, and by G——d wouldn't publish one of our speeches?

I tell you that if you tolerate things like this you won't have any party but a damned short time.

Now, I am in favor of reading every one of these seven traitors who voted against impeachment out of the party, and if you don't do it soon you won't get a chance, for I predict that in a month's time they will have joined the Democratic party of their own accord.

SENATOR WADE.—The New York Post, Radical as it is, cannot swallow Wade's voting for himself in the impeachment case. It says:

"The only disgraceful vote cast on Saturday was that of Mr. Wade, who, with a reckless abandonment of decency and propriety, voted for conviction, and for his own elevation to the Presidency, when it was believed by himself and the other supporters of impeachment that conviction would be obtained by only a single vote. We shall be surprised if Mr. Wade's course in this matter does not drive him out of public life; it has certainly lost him the respect and confidence of all impartial minds."

THE bloodshed which it is said Grant predicted would follow the acquittal of the President, has turned out to be nothing but the tear-shed of disappointed office seekers.—Patriot & Union.

AN exchange says there were seven impeachment managers and there are seven recusant Radical Senators, which it accounts for by saying that each manager disgusted one decent Senator.

THE Radical manager of elections at Rome, Georgia, stands indicted for hog stealing.

McCORMICK'S MOWERS & REAPERS.

THE Large and only GOLD MEDAL OF HONOR, for Harvesting Machines, and the Decoration of the Cross of the Legion of Honor, was awarded to CYRUS H. McCORMICK, over all other competitors, at the Paris Exposition in 1867. This was not one of the ordinary Gold Medals distributed to other exhibitors, but cons of the ELEVEN SPECIAL MEDALS, larger and more valuable, awarded only to such articles as in the estimation of the jury demanded some extraordinary mark of distinction for their superior excellence, world-wide fame, and universal utility.

The sales of the McCormick Machines last season amounted to nearly TEN THOUSAND, and McCormick & Bros. are now preparing a largely increased number, with many important improvements, for the season of 1868. The machines are popular not only because they are constructed on correct principles—principles which are at the foundation of all the other machines in the country, with many less—but also to the excellence of the materials used, and the care taken in their construction. The machines are plain and simple—no superfluities, gimcracks or new-fangled appendages, that complicate and weaken a machine, but while they have everything necessary, or even desirable, a boy or girl who can drive carefully, can manage them as well as an old, experienced hand. A comparison is challenged with all others on the score of mechanical construction and superiority of finish, as well as in the amount and perfection of work they will do.

The manufacturers say to those who don't know their machines, "Take a machine and try it to your satisfaction through, and if with any other machine you can get, and keep which you like best"—so confident are McCormick & Bros. that the machine they make is the best to keep.

The subscriber is Agent for the sale of the McCORMICK MOWERS AND REAPERS in Adams and York counties, Pa., and will be pleased to give all additional information desired.

Two machines are manufactured, a simple Mower, and a Mower and Reaper combined.

Extras always kept on hand by the agent, who will be prompt in attending to any repairs needed—but breakages very rarely occur.

REAPERS & MOWERS.

DODGES' PATENT

Ohio and Buckeye.

E. BALL & COMPANY'S

World's Reaper and Mower.

HAVING had considerable experience in the sale of Reaping and Mowing Machines in the last few years, I have made it a point to offer no machine to the farmer that will not when thoroughly tested give general satisfaction, and hence have declined the agency for all but what I regard the very best in the market. I now offer to the farmer the coming season, two of what I consider the best machines in use. Last season I sold thirty-five of the OHIO & BUCKEYE patent, which have given entire satisfaction. Not a machine has been returned, neither has there been any difficulty with any one to whom they were sold—all paying for their machines promptly. Certificates from those who have purchased could be procured, but I deem it unnecessary—but for information would refer those wanting machines to any of the following gentlemen who purchased and have been using these machines:

Jacob Raffensperger,	Edward Wagoner,
Jacob Fidler,	Samuel Wagoner,
William Wert, Jr.,	John Brinkerhoff,
Benjamin Shelly,	William Bighams,
Newton Horner,	Rush Bighams,
Silas Horner,	Dr. Goldsborough,
John Hertzel,	Henry Spangler,
Joseph Gelbaugh,	James Marshall,
Joseph Culbertson,	Frederick Peffer,
George Bushey,	Henry Welkert,
Daniel Marsh,	Henry Ball.

This machine has been awarded medals and first Premiums by the Pennsylvania, Iowa and New York State Fairs, and by hundreds of County Fairs in all parts of the country, including the Adams County Fairs, having received the first Premium at Bendersville in the fall of 1866, and at Gettysburg in 1867, and the best on exhibition.

This machine has met with the most complete success. In every section where it has been introduced, it has taken precedence over machines which have for years ranked as first-class. In compactness, lightness of draft, excellence and elegance of workmanship and finish, combined with great strength and adaptation to all kinds of work, it will please any machine before offered to the farmer. The Self-rake on this machine has been considerably improved in the last season, and is warranted to give general satisfaction, or no sale.

THE WORLD'S MOWER AND REAPER.

This is an entirely new machine, but judging from its construction and the testimonials it has received, it will be the leading machine. The gearing is cut out of solid iron, making every wheel and cog exact, fitting to close, and running as true as a clock, which makes the machine much lighter of draft, and no cutting of cogs or wear. The gearing is all closed in a tight case the same as a watch, entirely excluding water, dirt, or grass, and indeed preventing everything that is calculated to prove injurious to the machinery. To oil, you simply open the lid when all the oiling places are exposed and conveniently filled. The burs are all screwed the same as the gearing and cut in the same way, and when ones tightened down, there is no danger of working loose, as is the case with other machines. The Company do not hesitate in saying that this machine, with proper care, will last a man a life time, which is a matter every farmer should take into consideration before buying at the present high prices of machines.

TESTIMONY OF REV. JACOB D. TROSTLE.

LINGANORE, Fred'k co., Md., April 21, 1868.

MR. WM. WIBLE:—Last year I purchased one of Ball's WORLD BEATERS, and find that harvest in cutting my own grain and grass and some of my neighbors', and have no hesitation in saying that it gave me more satisfaction as a combined machine than any I have ever used, although I have tried some seven or eight other machines. I regard it the best machine in market, and can not hesitate to recommend it as such to any person wanting a first-class machine.

Yours, &c., J. D. TROSTLE.

I can also furnish BALL'S OHIO to those wishing that machine.

I can furnish these machines to suit farmers, and will sell as single Mowers or Combined Machines as Mowers—Self-rake—Hand-rake—Dropper—Dropper and Hand-rake combined. I am also agent for BOPE'S DROPPER, which can be attached to any make of machine. Those having old machines on hand, and wishing a Dropper can be accommodated by sending in their orders early and naming the kind of machine to which they wish them to be attached. Price $30.

Sample machines can be seen at the residence of the subscriber, two miles from Gettysburg, on the Harrisburg road, or at the Warehouse of Bigham & Co., Gettysburg, Pa.

I also keep on hand

WIRE-TOOTH HAY RAKES, STEEL PLOUGHS, FEED CUTTERS AND FARMING IMPLEMENTS GENERALLY.

Farmers would do well to examine my machinery before buying elsewhere, as I keep nothing but the best.

Extras constantly on hand, and I have made arrangements to have repairing done in the best possible manner at short notice and moderate charges.

WM. WIBLE.

May 1, 1868. 3m

J. H. SHIREMAN'S

REAPERS & MOWERS.

HAVING been agent for this machine last season, I also offer it to the farmer this season. It is well known, having taken the premiums at the Bendersville Fair, also at the Gettysburg Mowing Match over seven others, which were considered splendid machines, and likewise at the Dillsburg Mowing Match. Having concluded not to offer any machine that will not give entire satisfaction, I have refused agencies of several other machines, and now offer this one as

THE GREAT MACHINE OF THE SEASON.

Having tried one myself, I know exactly what it will do. I could refer you to scores of farmers who have purchased machines of me, who are highly pleased and say this is the only machine they would use.

Extras always on hand, and repairing done here at my place. This is a great consideration—the machine can be repaired at home immediately, and with much less cost.

Another great saving is the BINDER which is attached to this celebrated Reaper and Mower. It has been thoroughly tried, and gives entire satisfaction—requiring no harvest hand except a driver. This Binder can also be attached to the Reapers which have been sold; but cannot be attached to any other machine except Shireman's.

I will here refer you to a few farmers, in different localities, who have bought and used these machines:

Michael Fiscel,	Stephen Gettier,
Moses Hartman,	Mr. Sterner,
Joseph Wierman,	Mr. Eyler,
Ulrich Jacobs,	J. R. Hershey,
Jacob Hartman,	B. B. Woodburn,
	Jacob Laman.

with others, too numerous to mention.

This machine has a self-rake, side delivery, and is warranted to do its work as above recommended.

Also on hand, SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, a first-rate article, which we will sell at the lowest possible price. Warranted to give satisfaction. Also the OLD LIBERTY RAKE always on hand.

Machines can be seen at my house, three miles south of Gettysburg, or at Mr. Conrad Snyder's Battlefield Hotel.

HAY-MAKING.

There is annually so much good grass mercilessly manslaughtered in making it into hay that it becomes the duty of every publisher, editor and agricultural writer in the land, happening to have a better practical knowledge of haymaking, to begin with the hay-season, preaching as inimically as they can, at every opportunity, better principles, until a Radical reform in much of our haymaking practice shall have been achieved. As clover usually comes first in the routine of haying, and the season for putting mowers afield is close at hand, let us bear in mind that the best standing condition of clover is when the plant itself is fully developed, and the heads to full but early bloom, before any considerable proportion of them have assumed the slightest tinge of brown. Then instead of being roasted, broiled and baked in the scorching sun until it is as black as Japan tea, as is too frequently the case with clover hay, the best plan is to cut after the dew is off in the morning; cure, spread or in the swath, as much as can be done in five or six hours of clear drying weather, then twenty-four hours more in small cocks, sheltering from dew and rain, and haul in and put away with the leaves still green, wilted but not in the least crisped or blackened by the sun.

The other grasses are best cut when the stalks and foliage have attained full growth and the seeds are entirely developed, but still in a milky state. Like clover, they should be cocked after a few hours sun-curing, finished off in the cock, cured but not in the least crisped, and housed in while still green in color, elastic and possessed of all the inviting aroma of "new mown hay." If the foundations of bays and stacks are made well up clear of the ground, affording full and free ventilation underneath, and then in stacking or stowing away a layer of clean, dry straw, say six inches in depth, is placed every two feet between the courses of hay, there will be no danger of clover or any other kind of grass heating, moulding or rotting, though put away a great deal greener than is the general practice, and infinitely better hay will be the result.—Cosmo, in Saturday Evening Post.

RUST ON WHEAT.

Milton Reynolds, of Westville, Indiana, asks what causes rust on wheat? We answer that the general cause is a want of mineral, and an undue proportion of vegetable matter in the soil. A wet season favors its development, for the reason that it promotes the rapid absorption of vegetable mold into the straw, giving it a rank growth. We always find wheat more liable to rust on new land, or on land highly manured with barnyard or stable manure, which fact is explained by the statement made above. There is very little vegetable matter required for the production of wheat; on the contrary, it is mainly composed of minerals, silica being the leading element. A soil, therefore, abounding in silica is best adapted (all things being equal) to wheat. Having stated the cause of rust, the remedy will suggest itself to any one. This is found in lime, wood ashes, &c., and proper attention to drainage. A wet, cold, sour land will not produce wheat until it has been warmed and dried by drainage, and had its acidity corrected by lime or some other friendly alkali.—North Western Farmer.

EARTHWORMS IN FLOWER POTS.—"H." says: "If your correspondents who are troubled with this 'epidemic,' will apply a weak solution of salt in water a few times, they will destroy the worms, and benefit the plants." We fear that most persons would use too strong a solution, and we think lime-water preferable, as that cannot be made too strong. Perfectly clear lime-water, and not milk of lime, is to be used.

In a recent discussion before the Bedford N. H. Farmer's Club, the question of applying manures to sod ground came up, and twenty to one voted that manure should be applied to the sod after it had been turned over. Always as near the surface as it is possible.

A TOAD UNDRESSING.—Audubon relates that he once saw a toad undress himself. He commenced by pressing his elbows hard against his sides and rubbing downward. After a few smart rubs his hide began to burst open along the back. He kept on rubbing until he worked all his skin into folds on his sides and hips; then grasping one leg with his hands, he hauled off one leg of his pants the same as anybody would; then stripped off the other hind leg in the same way. He then took his cast-off skin forward between his fore legs into his mouth and swallowed it; then, by raising and lowering his head, swallowing as his head came down, he stripped off his skin underneath, until it came to his forelegs; then grasping one of those with the opposite hand, by a single motion of the head, and swallowing, he drew it from the neck and swallowed the whole.

"TIGHTS."—Tight pantaloons are to be all the go the present summer. We have had a sight of them already—and such a sight! It really makes us nervous to think of it. Our young men actually seem to have no "visible means of support." For goodness' sake, let them wear false calves. How they ever expect to become anything in the world on such diminutive props, we are unable to comprehend. And how do they manage to get into them? Their legs look as if they had been melted and poured in, and some how or other the leg end of the material seems to have run down into the boots.—Volunteer.

OBSERVATIONS BY JOSH BILLINGS.—If a man wants low get at his actual dimensions let him visit a grave yard.

It is getting so now-a-daze, if a man can't cheat in some way, he isn't happy.

Success in life is apt to make us forget the time we wasn't much. It is so with the frog in a jump; he kant remember that he was a tadpole, but other folks kan.

An individual, few & fine gentleman, has either got to be born so or brought up in it from infancy; he kant learn suddenly, say, more than he kan learn to talk Injun correctly by practicing on a Kentucky hawk.

A horse belonging to a Boston steam fire engine was removed to another stable to make room for another horse. There was an alarm during the night, and the old fire horse kicked down the stalls and everything else in his heels could get at, but patiently he got out and go to the engine.

An Englishman recently experimented with a fashionable patient by blowing morphine in his veins. The experiment was successful. The man died in an hour.

TO FARMERS!

Pacific Guano Company's

SOLUBLE

PACIFIC GUANO!

PRICE REDUCED TO $56.50 PER TON.

THE USE OF THIS GUANO in Maryland for several years for Corn, Tobacco and other Spring Crops, has established its superiority as a fertilizer of the highest excellence. It possesses all the quickness of Peruvian Guano, with permanent qualities not possessed by that article.

It contains the valuable ammonia and bone phosphates of the Ammonia Guano, and the Guano Ripens the Wheat crop from five to six days earlier than the Super Phosphates. It also ripens Tobacco earlier, and produces a crop of better quality. The Pacific Guano Company has authorized the above reduction in consequence of the depressed condition of the farming interests in the Southern States. It is the purpose of the Company to furnish the best fertilizer at the lowest price, which they are able to do by reason of their large capital and facilities. The Guano is warranted same in quality as heretofore sold by us.

NO. 2 WEST MARKET STREET, YORK, PA.,

AGENTS AND DEALERS IN

PIANOS & CABINET ORGANS, MELODEONS, AND ALL KINDS OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS,

respectfully inform the public that they are prepared to furnish Pianos of the following manufacture, or of any other make that may be preferred:

Albright, Reiker & Schmidt,
Wheelock & Sons, Bradbury,
Knabe & Son, Gale & Son.

FIFTY 4 CELEBRATED

COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These Instruments stand unrivalled by any thing found in this country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Professors and Amateurs who have performed, the test to discover excellence in reed Tone, pronounced them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential features in all instruments of this class. We invite the severest scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so pronounced by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop, we are at loss for language. It beautifies, and must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist to appreciate. It entirely changes the reed Organ, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

The PARLOR ORGANETTE or CHURCH ORGAN of Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic Attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is believed to be the most powerful reed organ made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

☞ BRASS BANDS supplied with instruments and music at reasonable terms.

A liberal discount allowed for Churches and Sabbath Schools.

☞ Instructions given both in Vocal and Instrumental Music, at our rooms, and at pupils' homes, either to individuals or classes, on reasonable terms.
